As Vice President and Senior Wealth Planner, Pierre Vogelbacher provides advice on complex estate and other wealth planning issues. He has a high level of technical experience in estate, tax and wealth planning issues. Pierre works with a team of specialists in investment management, trust and banking services to help clients achieve their financial objectives.

Pierre joined PNC in February 2011 as senior wealth planner. He began his career in 2000 as a lawyer with Harper, Kynes, Geller, Greenleaf, Vogelbacher & Frayman in Clearwater, Fla. During that time, Pierre focused his practice on assisting high-net worth families, entrepreneurs, physicians, other professionals and businesses with sophisticated estate planning and wealth preservation needs, corporate matters, business planning and general tax planning. Pierre is a licensed attorney in the state of Florida and is a member of the Florida State Bar.

Pierre holds a Bachelor of Arts in economics from the University of Florida, his Juris Doctorate degree from Nova Southeastern University, and his Master of Laws degree in taxation from the University of Miami, Coral Gables.

Pierre serves as the legal chair for the Clearwater Jazz Holiday Foundation, where his key responsibilities include reviewing artist contracts, insurance policies and organizing social networking and fundraising functions. Over its 30-year history, the Clearwater Jazz Holiday has featured jazz talents such as Tony Bennett, Kenny G, George Benson, Branford Marsalis, and The Neville Brothers.

Pierre lives in Winter Park, Fla., with his wife, Tonya, and two children, Caden and Hannah. In his free time, Pierre enjoys being actively involved in his children's sports activities and the local community.
